

ELSEWEDY --- ELECTRIC

Employee Code of Conduct

CEO Message

Dear colleagues,

It has been 80 years since we started manufacturing cables; where we made many achievements and milestones; What once started off as a family-run local business, has grown to be an international organization with more than 80 subsidiaries worldwide. Today, Elsewedy Electric has established itself as the one of best-integrated energy solutions, partnering with the biggest multinational business partners.

Our reputation is our most important value and the most critical as well. Our stakeholders and business partners expect us to do business in an ethical and responsible manner; one mistake, one careless comment can cause us to lose the trust we have been striving to earn.

This is why we are committed to doing things right. We strive to provide products that enhance the lives of the people in our community, our country, and all over the world. Our code of conduct ensures that we meet high standards in the way we do business, setting the tone for our business conduct and serving as a foundation for the company's policies and guidelines. Though our code of conduct cannot cover every possible situation, it provides us with comprehensive guidelines and essential ethical behavioural standards that help us make the right decisions.

Each of us is responsible to observe our code of conduct, which not only guarantees that we are following the laws and regulations in the countries where we operate, but to ensure our highest principles and standards of corporate responsibility.

I trust that all employees will take the time into reading our Code of ethics, making it a vital part of how we conduct our business. Feel free to ask questions and seek advice when you are unsure about the right thing to do.

Thank you for doing your part in fulfilling the obligation of our code of conduct. Together we will continue to make a positive difference.

Sincerely,

Ahmed Elsewedy
Chief Executive Officer

- 5.6.1. Group assets are the tools and information used to conduct business, including equipment (such as Elsewedy Electric laptops and phones), resources (such as Elsewedy Electric cash, office equipment, suppliers), and information will be used for business purposes only.
- 5.6.2. Employees are required to handle Group assets with care and protect them from loss, misuse, or theft as part of their duty to protect Group assets.
- 5.6.3. Employees are to be aware that anything stored, created, downloaded, sent, or received using Group assets can be reviewed by Elsewedy Electric at any time, as permitted by the applicable laws.
- 5.6.4. Upon leaving Elsewedy Electric, all Elsewedy Electric property will be returned by the employee.

6. We Do What's Right: Ethical Business Conduct

6.1. Recognizing and Avoiding Corruption

- 6.1.1. Corruption and bribery are prohibited by the law and unacceptable at Elsewedy Electric.

- 6.1.2. Employees are required to comply with the Elsewedy Electric Anti-Corruption and Anti-Money Laundering Policy (#) and the local countries' laws and regulations that they are operating in.
- 6.1.3. Employees are required to maintain ethical relationships with third parties, government officials, or any external stakeholder as the Group might be held liable for their corruption.
- 6.1.4. Employees are required to take action to prevent corruption and bribery during business operations and be aware of the following red flags:
 - Payment methods inconsistent with contract terms,
 - Services made but not accounted for by documents,
 - Requests for bribes
 - Tax evasion,
 - Ambiguous “consulting fees” on invoices or invoices that have not been signed,
 - Any request that has been made a condition for business to continue,

- Offers to pay in cash or overpayments followed by requests for refunds,
- Inconsistent or unusual payments or purchases.

6.2. Anti-Money Laundering and Anti-Fraud

6.2.1. The Group is committed to the fight against money laundering and terrorism financing. Employees will stay alert for signs of potential money laundering and other fraudulent activities and comply with the Elsewedy Electric Anti-Corruption and Anti-Money Laundering Policy (#).

6.2.2. Examples of fraud include the following:

- Fraud by false representation,
- Fraud by failure to disclose information, or intentional non-disclosure, misleading or manipulation of information to cause gain or loss.
- Abuse of a position of trust, where someone is expected to safeguard the financial interest of another, but instead places them at financial risk or causes a loss.

6.2.3. Employees are expected to use good judgement when working with third parties, and ensure that the Compliance Department has completed the proper due diligence and screening procedures and provided authorization.

6.2.4. Employees are required to take action to prevent money laundering and fraud during business operations and be aware of the following red flags:

- The third party presented fake documents,
- The third party is involved in suspicious activity or any criminal activities,
- Unusual fund transfers to or from countries unrelated to business operations.

6.3. Insider Trading and Tipping

6.3.1. Elsewedy Electric does not wish to restrict the freedom of employees with regards to making personal investments, but requires that employees be mindful of their responsibility of holding material nonpublic information.

6.3.2. Employees are required to maintain and protect the confidentiality of material nonpublic information entrusted to them until an official disclosure has been made by the Group through official announcement channels. Employees are required to comply with the Elsewedy Electric Insider Trading Policy (#).

6.4. Conflicts of Interest

- 6.4.1. Employees are required to always act in the best interest of the Group and avoid any situation or activity that might interfere with their objective judgement.
- 6.4.2. Employees are required to disclose any information that might lead to a conflict of interest and potentially influence their decision making abilities through the Conflict of Interest Personal Disclosure Form (Refer to Appendix A) to the HR and Compliance Departments.

6.5. Third Parties

- 6.5.1. Elsewedy Electric seeks to build honest relationships and works to be a responsible partner to all third parties that the Group conducts business with.
- 6.5.2. Employees are required to practice due diligence when selecting and evaluating third parties to ensure that we conduct business with trustworthy third parties.

6.6. International Trade

- 6.6.1. Elsewedy Electric's business is global and involves many countries, therefore the Group and all of its employees will aim to comply with all international applicable trade sanctions and export/import control laws and regulations, in each country where business is conducted.
- 6.6.2. Employees are required to adhere to all import controls, export controls, and economic sanctions as per the laws and regulations in each country of operation, even if transferring goods or services from one subsidiary to another.

6.7. Fair Competition and Antitrust

- 6.7.1. Fair competition is important as it allows markets to grow and develop freely. Elsewedy Electric shares a common interest with its competitors and customers to engage in business practices that strengthen trust and encourage long term viability of the sector.
- 6.7.2. Employees are required not to engage in any anti-competitive activities and are required to adhere to the following:

- Do not propose or enter into agreements that might create an unfair advantage in the market such as price fixing, dividing customers, wages, or preventing competitors from entering the market
- Do not discuss competitively sensitive information with competitors including prices, profit margins, contract terms, or marketing plans
- Do not enter into discussions or agreements with other companies not to hire or solicit each other's employees
- Do not provide, receive, or exchange any competitively sensitive information with a competitor
- Use publicly available information when gathering competitive information. Never use any type of scheme, misrepresentation, or omission to obtain any information

6.8. Gifts and Hospitality

- 6.8.1. Accepting and providing gifts and hospitality can strengthen business relationships, but they also expose the Group to the risk of corruption. Providing or receiving gifts, entertainment, and hospitality are required to be legal, appropriate, and reasonable and according to the Gifts and Hospitality section, under Elsewedy Electric Anti-Corruption and Anti-Money Laundering Policy (#).

6.9. Charitable Donations, Sponsorships, and Political Contributions

- 6.9.1. As a Group, Elsewedy Electric supports a variety of charitable causes in accordance with Group values and priorities.
- 6.9.2. Employees are required to adhere to the Charitable Donations, Sponsorships and Political Contributions sections, under Elsewedy Electric Anti-Corruption and Anti-Money Laundering Policy (#).

- 7.1.3. Weapons, drugs, and alcoholic beverages are prohibited on Elsewedy Electric premises including the offices, factories, and any other Elsewedy Electric facilities of the Group. Employees are prohibited from reporting for work under the influence of any alcohol or drugs.

8. Business Continuity and Record Keeping

8.1. Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery

- 8.1.1. Elsewedy Electric business owners will establish and maintain comprehensive business continuity and disaster recovery plans that align with the enterprise risk management framework and cross-functional and departmental activities.

8.2. Record Keeping

- 8.2.1. Employees are required to prepare timely, accurate, and complete information for use in reports to management, investors, regulators, and other stakeholders as this is essential to the honest and lawful conduct of business.
- 8.2.2. Employees are required to retain all Elsewedy Electric records in accordance with the Elsewedy Electric Information Security Policy (#). When records are no longer required, employees are to securely dispose of those records to prevent unauthorized access to information.

9. Support for Employees

9.1. No Retaliation

- 9.1.1. Elsewedy Electric Group encourages employees to raise concerns in a transparent manner through the whistleblowing tool - Speak Up (Refer to Elsewedy Electric Whistleblowing Policy (#)).

9.1.2. Whistleblowers who raise honest concerns will not be at risk of losing their jobs or suffering from any form of retaliation as a result, even if they turn out to be mistaken.

9.1.3. If a whistleblower believes that they are being subjected to retaliation or victimization, they are to inform the Compliance Department immediately.

9.2. Retrenchment

9.2.1. If retrenchment becomes necessary due to the need for higher efficiency, Elsewedy Electric will develop and implement a retrenchment plan to reduce the adverse impact on employees.

9.2.2. Elsewedy Electric will take the following measures to protect employees:

- Adhere to all legal and contractual requirements,
- Give the concerned employees as early a warning as possible,
- Introduce schemes for voluntary retrenchment that include payment of employee benefits, and

- Help identify opportunities for employees in finding other work.

10. Reporting Channels

10.1. Personal Grievances or Complaints

10.1.1. Employees who wish to report grievances of a personal nature, such as those related to performance or office supplies, are to reach out to their relevant HR Business Partner.

10.2. Reporting Non-Compliance

10.2.1. If any employee has knowledge of non-compliance, they shall follow the whistleblowing policy, which entails that they are required to immediately report this information to the Compliance Department through any of the available reporting channels:

- Online Portal - Speak up (<https://compliance.elsewedy.com/>)
- Email (compliance-int@elsewedy.com)
- Mail (Plot 27 1st District, 5th Settlement, New Cairo - Egypt)

11. Consequences of Non-Compliance

11.1.1. Disciplinary action by Elsewedy Electric, criminal penalties, or financial penalties may be applied and taken against any employee who:

- Violates this code of conduct or applicable laws and regulations, does not adopt the principles communicated by Elsewedy Electric, or does not comply with all other Elsewedy Electric policies,
- Encourages other employees to violate the code of conduct, applicable laws and regulations, or other Elsewedy Electric policies,
- Deliberately withholds relevant information concerning a potential violation or does not report a potential violation, and
- Retaliates or confronts another employee who reported a potential violation.
